BIG TOBACCO SUIT ON

Case of Blackwell's Tobacco Co. vs. American Tobacco Co. Now in Supreme Court.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

RICHMOND, N. C., April 2.—Mr. Sam Harris, the well-known Wakefield merchant, who so mysteriously disappeared from his home last week, having been seen in Raleigh, Va., it is reported that he had been in Richmond all this time. He says that he was in Raleigh, Va., instead of Richmond, and that he had been there for several days. He says that he had been in Raleigh, Va., for several days, and that he had been in Richmond, Va., for several days. He says that he had been in Raleigh, Va., for several days, and that he had been in Richmond, Va., for several days.

Ninth District cases are being heard on appeal by the Supreme Court this week. The second case called this morning was Blackwell's Tobacco Company vs. the American Tobacco Company, from Durham. This is the famous case, in which the American Tobacco Company is enjoined from the further use of the Blackwell's Durham trade-mark, which has a world-wide reputation.

The American Tobacco Company, as a New Jersey corporation, forced out of business by Blackwell's Durham people and purchased the plant and trade-mark. The business was continued at Durham, but the trade-mark was left unprotected through failure of the company to domesticate under the laws of North Carolina. A little more than a year ago the Blackwell's Durham Tobacco Company was organized, and the American Tobacco Company was enjoined from the further use of this trade-mark, hence the suit heard on appeal to-day. Counsel here to the case are Guthrie and Guthrie for the plaintiff and F. J. Miller, Julius Parker, assistant general counsel for the American Tobacco Company, New York, for the defendant.

Argue Other Cases.

Other cases to be argued on appeal this week from the Ninth District are: State vs. Turner; Johnson vs. Telephone Company; Thompson vs. Express Company; Cooke vs. Vickers; Leathers vs. Tobacco Company; Barber vs. Crenshaw; Allen vs. Traction Company; Kenworthy vs. Telegraph Company; Carpenter vs. Duke; Davis vs. Smith; Durham vs. Cotton Mills; Jarrett vs. Cook and Bag Company; Osborne vs. Railroad.

There was a conference here to-day between the Corporation Commission and representatives of the Atlantic Coast Line and Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad Companies, regarding the adjustment of schedules so that there will be connection between the Atlantic and North Carolina train leaving Goldsboro at 8 A. M. for Newbern and the Atlantic Coast Line train that leaves Newbern now for Wilmington about a half-hour before the arrival of the Goldsboro train at Newbern. For the conference, Superintendent L. P. Foster was here for the Atlantic and North Carolina, and Mr. G. L. Fountain for the Atlantic Coast Line.

PETERSBURG, VA., April 2.—James Jennings was acquitted to-day in the Mayor's Court of the charge of stealing a $100 diamond ring while working as a paperhanger at A. S. Reinach's residence on Adams Street about a year ago. Mr. Reinach said that the ring was taken from a bureau box containing several other diamond rings. The accused young man asserted that he found on the floor a ring the band of which was broken, and thinking that it was a brass ring with glass setting of no value, wore it for a time, and then gave it to a little girl in Highland. The Mayor gave him the benefit of the doubt and discharged him. Jennings was represented by Lassiter and Drewry.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
MONTGOMERY, VA., April 2.—The body of Mr. Harper Gum, who on Saturday night committed suicide at Covington, was brought to his old home near Meadow Dale, and to-day interred in the family burying ground at Green Hill. Mr. Gum was one of a large family of children—nine in all—and the suicidal mania which has developed in the family is most remarkable and distressing. Within ten years four of them have died by their own hands. The first was Mr. Cameron Gum, whose body was found in his room in a Denver (Col.) hotel; the second, Miss Clara, who took her own life at the Johns Hopkins Hospital; the third, Mr. Clay, from the shock of which death, just a year ago, the afflicted family has not recovered, and now Mr. Harper Gum, another bright young business man.

"A Perfect Wreck"

Pinetta, Va., Jan. 16, 1907.

Wine of Cardui has been a God-send to me, for I was bad off, as my neighbors can testify. I keep it in the house all the time and whenever I feel bad I fly to Cardui. Before taking it, I had suffered for about six years and the pains I had I shall never forget. I suffered with dreadful headache, backache, dull aching pains shooting all over me, and such pains low down, I thought, many a time, I was going to die. I tell you I was a perfect wreck. My doctor is a fine man and he did all he could, but I got no better. At last I began to take Wine of Cardui, and began to improve. Now I am stronger, can go out walking, stand on my feet, feel a great deal better, and the pains and aches I have described are all gone. I want every suffering woman to know what Cardui has done for me. It saved my life.
